

Mark Schultz

Resident Playwright

July, 2013 -- June, 2020

Mark Schultz is a playwright and Episcopal seminarian. Plays include: The Blackest Shore (Catastrophic Theatre); The Gingerbread House (the stageFARM); Deathbed (Apparition Productions); Everything Will Be Different: A Brief History of Helen of Troy (Soho Rep/True Love Productions) for which he won the 2005 Oppenheimer Award and the 2006 Kesselring Prize; Polar Bear (commissioned and produced by Birmingham Rep, UK); Ceremony (Rising Phoenix Rep); Gift (Rising Phoenix Rep/NY Fringe Festival); and various One Acts. Everything Will Be Different was produced by the Actors Touring Company with Theatre Royal Plymouth under the title A Brief History of Helen of Troy at the Soho Theatre in London after a UK tour. Other plays include: Magic Kingdom; Brightness. He has received a Sloan Commission from MTC as well as commissions from Playwrights Horizons, the Actors Theatre of Louisville, and The Exchange. He was selected for a 2006 Royal Court Residency. He is a member of New Dramatists and Rising Phoenix Rep. He holds an MFA in playwriting from Columbia University.

Download PDF Bio [1]

Contact Info

Olivier Sultan
CAA
162 5th Avenue, 6th Floor
New York, NY 10010

Contact:

osultan@caa.com [2]
(212) 277-9000

Source URL: <http://newdramatists.org/mark-schultz>